Practice Profile	Glenside Dental Practice is a small, but busy mixed NHA and private practice. It has 3 ambidextrous surgeries. We are paper free, our dental software is Dentally and we use digital radiography.
DFT ES Biography	I qualified in 1996 from Liverpool University and have worked full-time in General Practice since then. I am enthusiastic and committed to my dentistry, to my practice and to FD training and education. I have furthered my dental knowledge and ability by taking the MJDF exam (2011), MSc in Advanced General Dental Practice (2012), Certificate in Implantology (2012), Short –term ortho training in Inman Aligner, Six Months Smiles and Cfast. Certificate in Postgraduate teaching and Learning (Edgehill) MSc Implantology (Edgehill) (2020) I own a small holding in North Wales with my husband Peter. We have several horses, sheep and 2 cats. There is always something that needs doing and it provides and excellent work/life balance. I love my competing and ride in a variety of disciplines –dressage, showjumping, X-country and general riding club activities. I firmly believe in NHS dentistry and it is the core of our practice, but I also enjoy the challenges and skills involved with mixed practice. Being an ES is very important to me and my aim is to provide a stable learning environment for the FD year, with good support and a wide learning base and have an excellent team around me.
