Health Education North West

4th National Medical Leadership Conference of Health Education North West
(the former Mersey and North Western Deaneries)

Thursday 20th March 2014 : Reebok Stadium | Bolton | BL6 6JW

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS

Professor Aidan Halligan

*Senior Leadership Advisor
Public Health England*

Candace Imison

*Deputy Director of Policy
The King's Fund*

“How the chimp can interfere with your leadership skills.”

An interactive group session delivered by Chimp Management Ltd.

This conference will explore what skills are required to transform the NHS and the challenge this presents to our current and future leaders. We will consider what is required of medical leadership to create a sustainable NHS for future generations.

As the conference enables the sharing of learning on a national scale there will be opportunities to facilitate a workshop and/or display a poster to highlight your experience of developing leadership.

Professor Jacky Hayden, Dean of Postgraduate Medical Studies and the Conference Organising Committee

To book your place at the conference and to submit an abstract for a workshop or poster please go to: <http://www.mlc14.glasgows.co.uk/>

Target audience: Medical Leaders, Educators, Consultants, GPs, SAS Doctors, Doctors in training and non-medical staff with an interest in Leadership. Delegate fee £95
