

Virtual Oncology Return to Training Study Day

Thursday, 14th March 2024, 9.00am-4.00pm, Via Zoom

Have you been out of training for a period of research, out of programme experience or parental leave?

Are you feeling apprehensive about returning to training?

We want to support you and equip you with the knowledge and resources to feel more confident about your return.

Please join us on our free Virtual Oncology Return to Training Study Day. Open to any clinical or medical oncology trainees about to return to training or within 3 months of being back into training.

Topics to include:

- Immuno-oncology and managing toxicities of new therapies
- Updates in treatments of Breast and Lung cancer
- Supportive care
- Masterclass interactive discussions– equipping you for your first on-call after return to training
- Trainee experience, processes and paperwork
