Younger Fellows’ Meeting – Inspiring the Next Generation

Date: 11th October 2018, 6–9pm
Location: Chancellor’s Hotel, Manchester

Overview: The evening will begin with the Younger Fellows’ Committee sharing their experiences on what inspired them in their surgical careers and how they inspire the next generation of surgeons. Discussion will follow on topics related to ‘inspiration’, such as what makes the ideal role model and strategies to stay inspired during difficult times. The evening will be full of tips for new consultants and senior trainees. Food and drink will be provided and CPD points will be available.

Learning style: This meeting will be informal and attendees are encouraged to dress down. Delegates will discuss issues affecting Younger Fellows’ with like-minded colleagues in an open and relaxed atmosphere. The evening will mostly consist of discussion and break-out sessions around the theme of ‘inspiration’ and practical advice on how to deal with common problems that Younger Fellows have to face.

Aims and objectives: At the end of the evening, attendees will have met with like-minded peers and will understand commonalities of the highlights and difficulties of navigating a surgical career at Consultant level.
Younger Fellows’ Group

A Younger Fellow (YF) is any surgeon who has obtained Fellowship within the last 10 years. The group’s aim is to facilitate younger surgeons of all disciplines and from all locations in the UK to socialise, get involved in College life and feedback their opinions on professional issues to Council through the YF Committee, as well as provide an outlet to discuss frustrations or share success stories with new friends and like-minded colleagues.
